

The Kirkin' is intended to encourage all participants to reflect with thanksgiving on their own family and ethnic heritage, and to celebrate God's grace poured out for all generations.

Kirkin' 'O' the Tartan

A celebration of Scottish heritage

As Legend Goes... The ceremony of Kirkin' 'O' the Tartan is of Amercian origin, though based on Scottish history and legend. After Bonnie Prince Charlie's Scottish forces were defeated by the English at the Battle of Culloden in 1746, Scotland once again came under British rule. To control the Scots, an Act was passed that forbade the wearing of kilts or tartans which represented Scottish heritage. Orders were given for British troops to kill any person dressed in or displaying the tartan.

If there is righteousness in the heart, There will be beauty in the character.
If there is beauty in the character, There will be harmony in the home.
If there is harmony in the home, There will be order in the nation.
If there is order in the nation, There will be peace in the world.
